

S-VE Graduate of Distinction

John Palomaki

Class of 1976

John graduated from Colgate University in 1980 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Natural Sciences. He had a highly successful career at Microsoft Corporation, where he worked on the first three of Bill Gates' CEO Summits.

John wanted to give back to the community where he grew up so in 2001 along with a group of SVE residents he established a public charity foundation which originally was called The Youth and Community Foundation of Spencer-Van Etten today known as Inspire.
